

Merry Christmas And Happy New Year

From The Johnson's

2008

Dang it has been quite a year for us this 2008. A few of the highlights include, Ben heading off to Eastern Illinois University, and Bryan scheduling his 2009 graduation from Western Illinois University. Brett played baseball this year while Bradley played football. Kathy's garden was superb and Rick has become way too interested in Horse Racing.

At the start of the summer the family took a cruise, bought a new racehorse named General Charley, and watched him race 4 times over the summer with 2 exciting wins and 2 seconds.

Do you find yourself wondering "Where's the annual CD?" Well, this economy requires us to do more with less so you can find this years " Johnson Family 2008 Year In Review" online on our web site at www.rickyjohn.com

While you are surfing checkout our racing website at www.redrabbitracing.org

*From Our Family To Yours,
We Wish You A
Very Merry Christmas
And
Happy New Year 2009*

*With Love From,
Rick, Kathy
Bryan, Ben, Brett, Brad
And General Charley*

Victory In The Tin Man Stakes—August 16, 2008

2008 Quotes Of The Year

*"No Thanks Walt,
If I Wanted A Cookie, I Would Have My Son Bake It For Me."*

...Rick's response to Walt Weeden's offer of a tasty Christmas Cookie after earlier that day Bradley had ditched watching the Bears Game with his brothers to go to his girlfriend's house to bake holiday Christmas cookies with her.

"My Arms Are Dead!"

...An exhausted Bradley emerges from the bathroom after plunging the toilet for 30 minutes before the clog finally cleared.

"Would You Believe, My Only Investment Still On The Upside, Is A Racehorse!"

...Red Rabbit Racing partner Jeff Johnson laments the 2008 performance of his portfolio.

"I Don't Know And Why Would You Care?"

...Trainer Chris Block's exasperated response to horse loving partner Peggy (Johnson) Lenz's query about whether jockey Eddie Perez used a humane whip as he absolutely beat our General Charley down the stretch to our 1st stakes victory.

*"I Know It's Hard To Believe,
But Unbelievably
The Computer Wasn't Wrong!"*

...Rick's sarcastic response to wife Kathy's declaration that her laptop has made yet another error that upon examination was found to be due to user error—again.